Length of Railway routes in Vidarbha region of Maharashtra

344. SHRI V. RAJESHWAR RAO:
DR. SHRIKANT RAMCHANDRA JICHKAR:

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) the length of railway routes, broad gauge, metre gauge and narrow gauge in the Vidarbha Region of Maharashtra;

(b) whether Government propose to convert the metre and narrow gauge lines in Vidarbha into broad gauge; and

(c) what is the kilometreage and names of new lines approved by the Planning Commission for Vidarbha?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI K. C. LENKA): (a) Length of railway routes, region wise, is not being maintained. However, in the State of Maharashtra as on 1.4.92 the route kms. are as under:—

BG	MG	NG	Total
3460	881	1100	5441

(b) Work of conversion of (i) Gondia-Chandafort (242 km) NG to BG in the Vidarbha Region of Maharashtra is in progress. (ii) Khandwa-Purna (NG to BG) is included in the first phase of the action plan of Project Uni-guage. Work will be taken up in the coming years as per availability of resources.

(iii) Nagbhir-Nagpur & Pachora-Jamner will be considered for inclusion in the next phase.

(iv) Other NG lines Yavtmal-Murtizapur-Achalpur & Pulgaon-Arvi are private lines and as such the question of their conversion would be considered only if the Railways decide to exercise the option to take over these lines, which can be considered only at the time of next renewal of agreement in 1996.

(c) New BG line between Narkhed-Amravati (138 km) has been approved by the Planning Commission.
